Additional Definitions. As used in Part 5:

Domestic PEP: A domestic PEP is a person who holds — or has held within the last 5 years — a specific office or position in or on behalf of the Canadian federal government, a Canadian provincial government, or a Canadian municipal government:

- Governor General, lieutenant governor or head of government;
- member of the Senate or House of Commons or member of a legislature;
- deputy minister or equivalent rank;
- ambassador, or attaché or counsellor of an ambassador;
- military officer with a rank of general or above;
- president of a corporation that is wholly owned directly by Her Majesty in right of Canada or a province;
- head of a government agency;
- judge of an appellate court in a province, the Federal Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court of Canada;
- leader or president of a political party represented in a legislature; or
- mayor

A person ceases to be a domestic PEP 5 years after they have left office.

Foreign PEP: A foreign PEP is a person who holds or has held one of the following offices or positions in or on behalf of a foreign state:

- head of state or head of government;
- member of the executive council of government or member of a legislature;
- deputy minister or equivalent rank;
- ambassador, or attaché or counsellor of an ambassador;
- military officer with a rank of general or above;
- president of a state-owned company or a state-owned bank;
- head of a government agency;
- judge of a supreme court, constitutional court or other court of last resort; or
- leader or president of a political party represented in a legislature.

These persons are foreign PEPs regardless of citizenship, residence status or birth place. A person determined to be a foreign PEP, is forever a foreign PEP.

Head of international organization: The head of an international organization is a person, for example a president or CEO, who is either:

- the head of an international organization established by the governments or states; or
- the head of an institution established by an international organization.

Once a person is no longer the head of the international organization, or the head of the institution established by an international organization, that person is no longer a head of an international organization.

“immediate family member” means a mother or father, child, spouse or common-law partner, spouse’s or common-law partner’s mother or father, brother, sister, half-brother or half-sister.

“close associate” of the Client means an individual in a close personal or business relationship with the Client, for example: the business partner or romantic partner of the Client, an individual who is involved in financial transactions with the Client, is a prominent member of the same political party as the Client, serves on the same board as the Client or closely carries out charitable works with the Client.

5. Acknowledgement and consent (Please read and initial)

Initial I/We understand that there is no secondary market for Israel bonds, that Israel bonds are not traded and that in all circumstances, other than those specifically set forth in the prospectus or the offering memorandum or in certain other very limited circumstances as determined by the State of Israel, I must hold my Israel bond(s) until maturity to receive the principal.

Initial I/We certify that all the information I/we have supplied to CISL on this form or otherwise is accurate, complete and truthful. I/We agree to notify CISL in writing within 30 days of any material changes to the information supplied by me on this form or otherwise. I/We further acknowledge that CISL shall not be responsible for any changes to such information unless CISL has received written notice of such changes from me/us. I/We understand that CISL does not give legal or tax advice.

Initial I/We acknowledge that the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time, apply to the operation of me/our account and that CISL will, from time to time, adopt policies and procedures to address the reporting, client identification and recordkeeping requirements of this legislation.

I/We acknowledge receipt of notice that from time to time reports about me/us may be obtained by CISL from credit reporting agencies.

It is the express wish of the parties that this document and all agreements, notices and other communications relating to the operation of the account be drawn up in English only. Il est de la volonté expresse des parties que ce contrat et tous les documents avis et autres communications qui concernent l'opération des comptes conjoints soient rédigés en langue anglaise seulement.

COLLECTION AND USE OF A CUSTOMER'S PERSONAL INFORMATION

The collection and use of personal information by CISL is subject to its Policy on protection of personal information (the "Policy"), which complies with applicable laws. You can obtain information on this Policy, and obtain a copy of it, from your representative or from our website www.israelbonds.ca.

CISL does not disclose personal information about its customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. A customer's personal information is used for services such as data processing and the preparation or sending of statements. CISL restricts access to personal information to employees, consultants, service providers, companies affiliated by common ownership or control, the State of Israel and the State of Israel's fiscal agent who need to know the information to provide products and services and to process transactions on behalf of its customers. The customer's and the named individuals' personal information may be disclosed to securities regulatory authorities that require access to personal information of current and former customers, employees, agents, directors, officers, partners and others that has been collected or used by regulated persons. Securities regulatory authorities may share information with other regulatory and law enforcement agencies.

Subject to requirements set out in applicable laws, CISL collects, uses and conveys personal information on customers for the following purposes: (a) provide the customer with the products purchased; (b) determine if the products purchased by a customer meet the customer's needs; (c) understand a customer's needs; (d) take security measures, if required; (e) comply with laws and regulations in general and tax laws in particular, the latter requiring that a customer's social insurance number be indicated on the tax slips prepared for the purposes of complying with these laws and with the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act; (f) comply with foreign laws, if required; (g) detect and prevent fraud; and (h) engage in marketing products and services to customers by telephone, fax, and automatic dialing-announcing device, at the numbers they have provided us, or by internet, mail, email or other methods.

Initial I/we acknowledge having read the foregoing and authorize the collection, use and disclosure of the personal information in the manner set form in this consent and in CISL's policy on protection of personal information, such information to be kept as long as CISL requires it for the purposes set out above, even if I/we no longer do business with CISL or are no longer affiliated with the customer.

CONSENT TO THE ELECTRONIC DELIVERY OF DOCUMENTS (Please select 1 check box)

Yes No Do you consent to receive marketing material by electronic delivery?

Yes No Do you consent to receive all trade confirmations, account statements, prospectuses and other CISL disclosures (documents) by electronic delivery, if and when the system for electronic delivery becomes available?

If I/we checked yes to either question above, I/we certify that I/we have the capacity and the technical equipment (computer, telephone or other necessary equipment) enabling me/us to receive from CISL the above mentioned documents by electronic means, particularly but not exclusively via the Internet, to access the said documents and to read it. I/we agree that all documents received by electronic means have the same legal validity and shall be binding toward CISL and the customer in the same manner as if they were received in a paper form. The paper version of the documents above mentioned is available at the request of the customer, either verbal or written. A paper version of the document will also be sent automatically to the customer every time the electronic delivery is impossible for any reason. It is understood that CISL shall not be liable for losses, directly or indirectly incurred by the customer, with respect to any electronic delivery of documents. Without limiting the generality of the previous, CISL shall not be liable in the event of a breakdown of the customer's equipment nor for the interruption of any electronic delivery of documents. CISL has taken all reasonable measures at its disposal to ensure the confidentiality of all electronic delivery of documents and the customer's personal information. However, CISL shall not be liable for losses directly or indirectly incurred by the customer if an unauthorized third party succeeds in penetrating the security systems adopted by CISL or the security system protecting the customer's own equipment. The customer accepts the risks inherent in the communication and delivery of documents by electronic means, notably via the Internet. The customer undertakes to inform CISL of any change with respect to their electronic mail address.
